WENDELL BERRY

On Wednesday, June 26 at 7:00 PM in the CHBC Sanctuary, Wendell Berry, his daughter Mary Smith, and the former CEO of Whole Foods will be in conversation on the occasion of the 2019 publication of the authoritative two-volume collection of Berry's influential nonfiction, What I Stand On: Collected Essays 1969-2017 (Library of America) to discuss the damage done by today's industrial agriculture and how Berry's ideas enhance the public discourse on saving our natural resources and rural communities. There is no charge to attend, but you must register at Eventbrite.com.

READING GROUP

Join the Reading Group on Thursday, May 30 at 7:00 PM in the Parlor to discuss Jessie Burton's international best seller The Miniaturist. In 1686, 18-year-old Nella Oortman arrives in Amsterdam to meet her wealthy merchant husband Johannes Brandt. When Johannes appears, he presents her with a wedding gift: a cabinet that is a miniature replica of their home, to be furnished by an elusive Miniaturist, whose tiny creations mirror what is happening within the house in unexpected ways and seem to be predicting and unraveling the future with unsettling precision. As Nella begins to uncover its secrets and those of the Brandt household she realizes the escalating dangers that await them all. Does the Miniaturist hold their fate in her hands? And will she be the key to their salvation or the architect of their downfall? Softback copies are available at a discount at Carmichael's when you mention the CHBC Reading Group. The discussion is always lively — read and join us.

COMMUNION MINISTRY TEAM

We want to thank Bill Thomason for his years of service and dedication. Bill has turned the leadership of this ministry over to Margaret McCollum and Carolyn Fegenbush, who will be continuing and developing the communion team. If you would like to serve on this ministry and be put on the schedule, please contact Margaret at chefmargaret@twc.com.

SOCIAL JUSTICE MOVIE

May's Social Justice movie is Without a Trace, a 2017 film directed by Debra Granik and based on the novel My Abandonment by Peter Rock. After living off the grid in Oregon for years, traumatized military veteran Will and his teenage daughter, Tom, are picked up by social services and forced to integrate back into society. While Tom begins to connect with others and thrive, Will struggles and attempts to avoid his demons by escaping back into the wild. The movie will be shown on Friday, May 17 at 7:00 PM in the Parlor. Everyone is welcome.
