A Roman Centurion Sought Out the Lord

ST. DENIO

A Roman centurion sought out the Lord:
"My servant is suffering, but just give the word!
For I have authority; you have it, too.
I know he'll be well with a blessing from you."

Then Jesus responded to those who were near,
"There's not, in God's people, the faith I've found here.
And someday God's kingdom will bring a surprise
With outsiders in and the heirs left outside."

The Lord sent him home and it soon was revealed
That just at that moment, the servant was healed.
That outsider saw it; may we see it, too:
That Christ has the power to make our lives new.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

I will joyfully sing in the morning. I will joyfully sing all the day.
I'll sing praises to Thee in the morning, for the Lord is the strength of my day.
I will lift up my eyes in the morning, for the Lord will not turn me away.
I'll sing praises to Thee in the morning, for the Lord is the strength of my day.
I will sing! I will praise and sing of God's goodness to me.
